The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-5 & 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mabuchi et al 3,985,322 (newly cited), in view of Reynolds et al 6,550,715.

Mabuchi shows an airplane toy including a longitudinal frame 3 having a forward wing, and rearward stabilizer (figure 1), and a propeller and motor. However, there is no propeller protector, so the propeller may be damaged if it hits an object. One would recognize that a propeller protector would be desirable. For example, Reynolds shows that a flying toy may include a propeller, and protector 34 extending around and beyond the propeller and connected by struts 32 to the frame. This protector would be desirable with the toy of Mabuchi to protect the propeller. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide the toy of Mabuchi with the propeller protector shown by Reynolds.

rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly,

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37
